EDINBURG

NEWSLETTER

Volume #9

Published monthly by volunteers - free to the community

The Edinburg Newsletter is published each month solely as a community effort. No one is paid for their effort and their effort is totally voluntary.

What this means is if you live in the area, it is your privilege, nay your duty, to participate in its make-up. This effort should not become the journalistic principality of a few, but rather, the vested interest of all.

You are encouraged to invest your time, your efforts, your information, and your point of view in this endeavor. The editors welcome your in-put in this publication's messages to all the people of Edinburg.

Please don't feel that because you have not been contacted personally, that your feelings don't count. We, editorially, want all citizens to be counted in these pages, so that if you have something to say, and you feel you want to share your feelings with the rest of the community, Please feel free to call us here at the office of the Edinburg Newsletter at 863-4731.

If your time is limited or you have misgivings about writing out your message, please feel free to contact us and we will send a reporter, or have someone contact you by phone to transcribe your message.

What we want to hear is your political, social or religious views. More simply, perhaps a good old fashioned recipe or anecdote about the community of yesteryear. We also want to hear about births, engagements, marriages, family histories, parties, vacation travel or any pertinent social happenings of the people of this community.

Won't you please help make your newsletter a total community effort. Our volunteers are more than happy to do the leg work, if you, out there, will help us by relaying the information to us.
